

FAST TRACK YOUR RESEARCH

WITH JOURNAL OF PHYSICS: CONDENSED MATTER

IOP Publishing

IOP Fast Track Communications

Is your work:

- reporting new and timely developments in condensed matter research?
- of excellent quality and of interest to the community?
- written in a clear and concise style?
- 5000 words or less?

Then submit it as a fast track communication telling us why you think it should be urgently published.

Your benefits:

- rapid processing
- permanently free to read online
- recognition of your paper's quality
- free electronic off-prints sent to readers recommended by you.

Submit your paper for immediate consideration by a board member at www.iop.org/journals/jpcm

If you have any further questions then contact us at jpcm@iop.org
